General Meeting Minutes

Christmas Party

12/10/17

Christmas Party was held at Sun Country Estates beginning at 3:00 p.m. Club members enjoyed a potluck meal. President Mark Sires called a short meeting to address the voting of our new board for 2018. Ballots were handed out and Mark tabulated the votes. Our 2018 officers are:

- President – David Mitts
- Vice President – Harold Clark
- Secretary – Mary Clark
- Treasurer – Opal Duffield
- Alternate – Guy Anderson

Mark reminded everyone that the Annual Banquet will be held at The Holiday Inn, 802 East Yakima Ave., on January 27, 2018. Social hour at 5:00 p.m. with dinner at 6:00 p.m. A selection sheet was provided for sign up for the banquet and food selection of Prime Rib or Salmon.

Christmas shoe boxes were collected. Velda will deliver them.

Once the meeting was adjourned the Christmas gift exchange began.

*There was a 50/50 drawing and I completed spaced out as to who won it and how much.

Passion for Life:

“Passion is passion. It’s the excitement between the tedious spaces, and it doesn’t matter where it’s directed.” (not talking about vices). “It can be coins or sports or politics or horses or music or faith... the saddest people I’ve ever met in life are the ones who don’t care deeply about anything at all. Passion and satisfaction go hand in hand, and without them, any happiness is only temporary, because there’s nothing to make it last. Sometimes, someone else’s happiness is usually infectious”¹

Some of you might notice that I placed my return address to this newsletter. I had a problem of not placing enough tape on the last newsletters so the post office didn’t even try to deliver them. Dave Mitts happen to find them in our mail box at the post office and he was notified then that they were non-deliverable and the reason why. That is why some of you received them at the Christmas party and the balanced were “fixed” and mailed. Don’t know if this would be the correct thing to do, but the return address on the newsletter should only be used in conjunction with items for the newsletter. Thanks; D.H.

Some of you might have ‘KIDDE’ fire extinguishers. There has been a recall on some of these extinguishers. I checked four of mine and found that three were on the recall list. It was a complete no hassle return and replacement on all three, at no cost to me. It seems that those on the recall might not work when needed.

Why does a chicken coop have two doors?

Because if it had four doors it would be a sedan.

Car activities for this coming year: I have searched my records as well as the internet concerning passed car shows and parades. I know that with the amount of car activities I’ve found we all cannot attend them all. If for no other reason some car shows are limited to certain age categories (i.e. Run to Roslyn and Vintiques) and of course the distance to some of these activities. Since some of my information is old it is possible that some I will list will not be active, but I thought that instead of just me searching these out, I know some of you club members like a good mystery and will do your own searching. Sunnyside High School will have their car show on the 23rd of March ($15.00 per entry). Yakima Convention Center will have their show; March 9th – 11th (I believe) [this is $30.00 to get in plus their pre- approval of your entry]. If interested in the Convention Center show you should begin looking into it soon.

It is nice to have club participation at the various shows/parades it is not necessary. You as club members could represent the club as individuals. If you choose to participate in a car show or parade other than what the majority of the club will be attending, that is not a problem. It would be nice that if you do that you take with you information of our club or flyers for our show to hand out to others who might be interested (this would mean anyone at a car show with their windows rolled down).

Just remember, just because no one else in the club will be taking their car out for a show/parade on a certain weekend does not mean you should not participate. (Just remember that with most parade you will need to pre-register.)

Bonus Comment:

An East Texas couple, both real-life rednecks, had 9 children. They went to the doctor to see about getting the husband "fixed". The doctor asked them why, after nine children would they choose to do this. The husband replied that they had read in a recent article that one out of every ten children born in America was Mexican, and they didn't want a Mexican baby because neither of them could speak Spanish.

BEST EVER SENIOR CITIZEN JOKE

A little silver-haired lady calls her neighbor and says, "Please come over here and help me. I have a killer jigsaw puzzle, and I can't figure out how to get started." Her neighbor asks, "What is it supposed to be when it's finished?"

The little silver-haired lady says, "According to the picture on the box, it's a rooster."

Her neighbor decides to go over and help with the puzzle. She lets him in and shows him where she has the puzzle spread all over the table. He studies the pieces for a moment, then looks at the box, then turns to her and says,

"First of all, no matter what we do, we're not going to be able to assemble these pieces into anything resembling a rooster."

He takes her hand and says, "Secondly, I want you to relax. Let's have a nice cup of tea, and then," he said with a deep sigh "Let's put all the Corn Flakes back in the box."

Yep, I know, some of you might have read these last comments before, but I wanted to put something on the last page.
