Hello SCMC members,

By now you have all received and hopefully read the November newsletter (Thanks Doug). In it were the minutes of the October board meeting followed by a "2 cents" letter.

In the minutes it was stated that the 2020 officers were willing to serve another year. In the past, nominations would have been opened at our October general meeting. Because we had no October general meeting there wasn't an opportunity for nominations from the floor. Doug was correct to point out that we should have nominations virus or no virus. To correct this, we are opening nominations for all of office positions until Thanksgiving (11/26). You can either email Secretary Mary Clark (mustangs1968@ymail.com) or send a USPS letter to PO Box 556, Moxee, WA 98936.

We will then put a ballot in the December newsletter should we need to have a vote. The ballot could be sent to the po box or email. So now is the time to nominate yourself or someone whose childhood dream was to be a SCMC officer!!

I would also like to address the banquet issue. Unless we get to phase 4, we can't LEGALLY have a gathering of the club's size. The only way this happens is if we can find a venue willing to take a risk and we ignore the governor's orders. We will have our banquet at some point this year when we get out of this mess.

I had a member ask where to send his dues. Please send to PO Box 556, Moxee, WA 98936. Thank you for your consideration and patience. Let's hope that we can get through this soon.

President SCMC

Subject: Distributor

I had this distributor given to me, apparently for a 69 or 70 Mach 1 with a 351 - that's all I know. Free to good home if anybody wants/needs it.

Another note from Velda

Hi Doug, A little piece of Newsletter news

I got a call from a Richard Brown this week, I wasn't answering, until I listened for the message. "Velda this is Sandy Daley, Brown". Sandy got married last April! There aren't a lot of members that would remember her, but she and her husband, John were one of the first members of our club. John was president when we were meeting at "The Grizzley Bear Pizza" on N. 1st. St., in the 1990s. After John passed away, Sandy continued to stay a member, and continued to support our activities. She has kept her home here but is in Arizona mostly. CONGRATULATIONs Sandy.

I believe all those listed on the left have still agreed to run again for the office listed above their names. Nominations at this point is closed and I have no knowledge of any additional names to be added to this list. I would assume that at the time of this writing those listed will be the club officers for 2021.

Life is not the shimmering past, nor is it the uncertain future. Life is this moment, and this one, and this. It is here, in this place, now, in this time.
